UNDERSTANDING SELF

|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------|--|
|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------|--|

The objective of this course is to develop understanding of student-teachers about themselves – the development of the self as a person and as a teacher, through conscious ongoing reflection. The course would be transacted through a workshop mode by more than one resource persons. The course will address aspects of development of the inner self and the professional identity of a teacher. This shall enable student-teachers to develop sensibilities, dispositions, and skills that will later help them in facilitating the personal growth of their own students while they teach.

It is important for student-teachers to develop social relational sensitivity and effective communication skills, including the ability to listen and observe. The course will enable student-teachers to develop a holistic and integrated understanding of the human self and personality; to build resilience within to deal with conflicts at different levels and learn to create teams to draw upon collective strengths.

The course will make use of personal narratives, life stories, group interactions, film reviews – to help explore one's dreams, aspirations, concerns, through varied forms of self-expression, including poetry and humour, creative movement, aesthetic representations, yoga etc.

Practical Activities: Prepare report on the following activities:

- a. Conduct case studies on different children who are raised in different circumstances and how this affected their sense of self and identity formation.
- b. Biographies/stories of different children who are raised in different circumstances and how this affected their sense of self and identity formation.
- c. Watch a movie/documentary where the protagonist undergoes trials and finally discovers her/his potential despite odds.
- d. Issues of contemporary adolescence/youth need to be taken up as student-teachers first need to understand themselves; and themselves in relation to their students and classroom situations.
- e. Any other.

Transaction Mode-Lecture cum Discussion method, Brain Storming Method, Blended teaching, Workshop, Computer assisted teaching, Facilitating techniques
